

Stockholm's Standards

- We will sit smartly and be quiet when we are supposed to be by listening carefully without interrupting.
- We will be sensible, polite and do what an adult asks us to do first time.
- We will keep our hands and feet to ourselves, we will not bully anyone and we will share and take turns.
- We will talk to people respectfully and kindly and look at them when they are speaking to us and we will not answer them back.
- We will think about our actions and make the right choices and we will apologise when we have made a wrong choice. We will accept the consequences if we get it wrong.
- We will always do our best, learn from our mistakes and be the very best that we can be!
- We will treat others the way that we like to be treated by thinking about what we say before we say it and trusting in each other.
 - We will always tell the truth.
- We will work as a team by looking after each other and other people's belongings.
- We will try to get changed for P.E in silence whilst listening to calming music within 5 minutes.
- We will persevere when we find things difficult and try our best to be independent learners when we need to be.
