

History end of year expectations – Year 5 All, Most and Some

A – Chronological Awareness	A1 I can describe significant features from time periods and know how Britain has influenced and been influenced by the wider world. ALL: I can describe significant features from time periods and know how Britain has influenced and been influenced by the wider world. MOST: I can explain a variety of influences, both on the world from Britain and vice versa. SOME: I can make and explain my own judgments about influences, both on the world from Britain and vice versa. A2 I can describe, compare and contrast different periods from the past, making links to periods studied in previous years. ALL: I can describe, compare and contrast different periods from the past. MOST: I can describe, compare and contrast different periods from the past, independently making links to periods studied in previous years. SOME: I can suggest possible reasons for continuity and change between periods from the past. A3 ALL: I can place historical events or change on a timeline.
B – Knowledge and Understanding	B1 I can choose reliable sources of information about the past. ALL: I understand that some sources of information are more reliable than others. MOST: I can choose reliable sources of information about the past. SOME: I can explain, with justification, why some sources are more reliable than others. B2 I can give my own reasons why an event occurred backed up by evidence eg the reformation of the Church. ALL: I can outline various reasons for why an event occurred. MOST: I can give a variety of reasons for why an event occurred and support my explanations with evidence. SOME: I can examine and rank the significance of a variety of reasons for why an event occurred. B3 I can describe how events in the past have influenced life today.
C – Organise, Evaluate and Communication Information	C1 I can begin to make use of dates and specialist terms to structure my work. C2 I can evaluate sources and identify those that are useful to the task. ALL: I can identify sources that are useful to a task. MOST: I can evaluate sources based on their reliability. SOME: I can justify my evaluations of sources based on their reliability. C3 I can plan and present a self-directed project about the studied period.
D- Historical Understanding	D1 I can understand historical concepts and use them to make connections, draw contrasts, analyse trends and ask questions about the past. ALL: I can ask questions about the past. MOST: I can ask questions about the past based on connections, contrasts and trends that I have noticed. SOME: I can explain connections, and possible reasons for contrasts and trends.
E – Historical Enquiry	E1 I know that there is often not a single answer to historical questions. E2 I can begin to recognise primary and secondary sources. ALL: I understand the difference between primary and secondary sources of information. MOST: I know some advantages and disadvantages to primary and secondary sources. SOME: I can consider the reliability and validity of primary and secondary sources. E3 I can research a topic from the past with increasing confidence.