

Computing end of year expectations – Year 3 – All, Most and Some
A) E-Safety	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. ALL-To use technology safely, respectfully and responsibly2. ALL-To recognise acceptable/unacceptable behaviour3. ALL-To identify a range of ways to report concerns about content and contact.4. ALL-To understand that the Internet contains fact, fiction and opinions and begin to distinguish between them5. ALL-To understand what personal information is. MOST- To understand what personal information should be kept private. SOME- To identify different types of personal information which should be kept private and understand what a trusted adult is. <ol style="list-style-type: none">6. ALL-To know that passwords keep information secure and that they should be kept private
B) Multimedia and processing	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. ALL- To know how to import content. MOST-To know how to import, and edit content SOME- To import and edit content on different programs.2. To hold two hands over different halves of the keyboard3. To use more than two fingers to enter text4. To know how to import an image and explore effects.5. To begin using technology to input data (e.g. excel)
C) Programming	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. ALL- To design and write simple programs. MOST- To design, write and debug programs SOME- To design, write and debug programs efficiently.2. To use sequence, selection, and repetition in programs3. To know how to detect and correct errors in algorithms and programs
D) Communication and collaboration	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. To understand computer networks including the internet2. ALL- To begin to explore how the internet can provide multiple services. MOST- To begin to explore how the internet can provide multiple services including communication SOME- To identify how the internet can provide multiple services including communication and can evaluate the benefits and limitations of it.